

Business Development Manager

- North Shore Location
- Construction Company
- Growing Housing Division

Another exciting opportunity has arisen with one of the industry's leading commercial builders.

Operating in the commercial sector of the building industry, Richard Crookes Constructions has over 30 years of expertise gained in a broad range of projects across NSW. Due to continuous growth, the company is looking for a Business Development Manager to work with the Housing Division team. This is a new role within a rapidly expanding team. Reporting to the head of this division, you can make this role your own.

Taking a consultative approach you will see yourself as liaising with different levels of decision makers to generate new business and solid client relationships. You will have over 5 years experience in business development with an appropriate degree qualification. Experience within the construction industry would be looked upon favourably.

Required skills and attributes:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- A high level of interpersonal skills
- Self motivated
- Great presentation skills
- Attention to detail

Remuneration will be rewarding commensurate with experience.

To be eligible to apply for this position you must have an appropriate Australian or New Zealand work visa.

Richard Crookes Constructions is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
